Terms and Conditions

1. These Terms and Conditions incorporate the definitions and other provisions set out in the main body of this Royal Armouries Website and Copyright Use Statement.
2. Royal Armouries will grant you a non-exclusive licence to make Commercial Use of the Content in which Royal Armouries owns the IPR subject to the conditions below and otherwise set out in the licence that We and You enter into. For the avoidance of doubt, Royal Armouries will not grant You an exclusive licence to Use its Content.
3. You must not do anything which is prohibited under the section of this document entitled "Restrictions on Your Use of Content".
4. The Royal Armouries reserves the publication right in all Content made available through its Image Library, whether or not they have been previously published in any form and to the extent that You generate any such publication right through Your Commercial Use of Our Content You shall assign all such publication right to Us and We shall licence it back to You on these terms.
5. The sections in Our Non-Commercial Licence (and Crown Copyright Licence) entitled "Exemptions", "No Warranty" and Governing Law" in shall apply equally to Your licence to make Commercial Use of Our Content.

6. The Royal Armouries operates a pro-forma invoicing system and payment must be received before any Content or permissions are sent. Payment should be made within 30 days of invoicing, and failure to do so will automatically result in the cancellation of any licence, discounts or special agreements.
7. Cheques must be made payable to The Royal Armouries in sterling. The Royal Armouries can also accept payment by Visa or Mastercard.
8. On full payment of the invoice, reproduction rights are granted to You, as specified on the invoice. Any Commercial Use of Our Content before full payment of the invoice constitutes an infringement of IPR, and renders You liable for the payment of damages.
9. No rights granted may be assigned, transferred or sub-licensed by You without Our prior written consent.
10. You will indemnify the Royal Armouries against any damage, losses or harm caused by Your unauthorised Use of the Content.
11. In the event of Your insolvency, bankruptcy or death no transfer of ownership in rights or materials from the Royal Armouries shall be deemed to have occurred.
12. Rights granted by the Royal Armouries are strictly limited to the Use, the term and the territory specified on the invoice. All reprints, further editions or reuse of the Content in another project require new application and are not covered by the original payment.
13. The Royal Armouries reserves the right to request a colour proof of any reproduction of Content prior to printing, and to withhold the right to reproduce Content if the quality of the reproduction falls below the standard set by Royal Armouries.
14. Content must not be reversed, masked out, cut down, superimposed with type matter or in any way defaced or manipulated without the prior written consent of the Royal Armouries, If You do so You will be liable for the payment of damages.
15. Applications to reproduce a detail or a cropped image will only be considered upon receipt of a proof of the reproduction. The caption must include the word 'Detail'.
16. You must include an accurate Attribution and if You do not You will be charged additional fees.
17. The Royal Armouries' inventory number must be included in any caption. If You reproduce Content without the correct inventory number You will be charged additional fees.
18. At least one complimentary copy of each publication that includes Content must be forwarded to the Royal Armouries for Our records.
